who retires this time as head of Thornleigh. Andrea, one of our parishioners, has given a life of service as a teacher with over thirty years at Thornleigh after beginning her career in Oldham. She has touched many people's lives through her unique combination of compassion, concern, high expectations and humour, living her teaching career as a vocation within the Catholic sector.

Please keep her in your prayers thanking God for all she has achieved and His blessing upon her for the time ahead.
